Dr. Rozycki is the founding CEO of the John Bosco Child and Family Services Foundation (2002) and he was the driving force in the establishment of the following organizations:

- Bosco Homes A Society For Children And Families (1987),
- Bosco Homes School Jurisdiction (1988),
- ABH-Child and Family Services (1994),
- Children First Family Services Association (2001).

Under his leadership, the Bosco family of organizations have thrived and grown into one of Canada's outstanding Child and Family Services Providers.

From humble beginnings in 1987 with the establishment of "Bosco Homes", the Bosco group of organizations have grown from a 14-bed residential treatment program to a multi-tiered family of organizations which provide the following array of services in Alberta and the Northwest Territories.

- Intensive Group Treatment Care
- Community-based Group Care
- Psychological and Assessment Services
- Professional and Education Services
- Foster Care (advanced and general)
- Aboriginal Services
- Special Educational/Remedial Educational Services (four schools)
- Child and Youth Support Services (24-hour relief staff services)
- Persons with Developmental Disabilities Adult Group Home
- Mental Health Services for children and adults

The Foundation's focus is to provide affordable facilities, financial and human resources and make them available to the Bosco family of organizations who provide an array of human services to individuals and families who through no fault of their own struggle with many daily challenges.
